

ONE LIBERTY PLACE, 1650 MARKET STREET, 8TH FLOOR
PHILADELPHIA, PA 19103
(866) 873-1641

AXCELUS FINANCIAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY AND ITS AFFILIATES NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES

Thank you for choosing Axcelus Financial Life Insurance Company as your insurance company. When you apply for insurance with us, we must first “underwrite” your application. This is a specialized process of evaluation and classification that involves two steps. First, we review your application to see if you qualify for the requested coverage under Axcelus Financial Life Insurance Company’s rules. Second, if you do qualify, we must determine the appropriate underwriting class. That will determine the premium level or cost of insurance charges applicable for that insurance. Then, after your policy is issued, we must properly administer the policy and pay any covered claims. Accurate underwriting and claims administration enable us to keep premiums and cost of insurance charges fair and reasonable for you and all of our policyholders.

To complete the underwriting process and pay covered claims, we request non-medical, medical and health information about you that is detailed and specific. Before we process your application, we wish to make you aware of our policies concerning information we might collect about you and any of your family members proposed for coverage.

How We Collect Our Information

In addition to the information included in the application, Axcelus Financial Life Insurance Company, its representatives, its affiliates, agents, or its reinsurers will, as part of our underwriting procedures, collect information relating to any proposed insured’s physical and mental condition, health history, mode of living, general character and reputation, personal characteristics, habits, finances, occupation, other insurance coverage or participation in hazardous activities.

This information may be obtained from you personally or from physicians, medical professionals, hospitals, clinics, laboratories, pharmacies, health plans, or other medical care institutions which have provided care to you or to members of your family, from the MIB, LLC (MIB), public records, consumer reporting agencies, financial sources (such as your lawyer and/or accountant), Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), other insurance or reinsurance companies, agents, friends, neighbors, employers or business associates. We may obtain information through exchanges of correspondence, by telephone, or by personal contact.

An investigative consumer report may be necessary, and you have the right to obtain a copy of this report and to be interviewed personally as part of this process. If you desire this personal interview, please inform your agent. Should you want a copy of this report, write to us, and we will furnish the name and address of the consumer reporting agency. You may then contact this agency and request a copy. If the information in a consumer report leads us to not approve your application or to charge an extra premium we will notify you and provide the reporting agency’s name, address and telephone number. You should be aware that when an independent consumer reporting agency prepares such a report, they may keep it and disclose it to other companies upon request.

MIB

Information regarding your insurability will be treated as confidential. Axcelus Financial Life Insurance Company or its reinsurers may, however, make a brief report to the MIB, formerly known as the Medical Information Bureau, a not-for-profit membership organization of life insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply to another MIB member company for life or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such company, MIB, upon request, will supply such company with the information about you in its file.

Upon receipt of a request from you, MIB will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. Please contact MIB at 866-692-6901 (TTY 866-346-3642). If you question the accuracy of information in MIB’s file, you may contact MIB and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of MIB’s information office is 50 Braintree Hill Park, Suite 400, Braintree, Massachusetts 02184-8734.

Axcelus Financial Life Insurance Company, or its reinsurers, may also release information in its file to other life insurance companies to whom you may apply for life or health insurance, or to whom a claim for benefits may be submitted. Information for consumers about MIB may be obtained on its website at www.mib.com.

The purpose of the MIB is to protect member companies from bearing the expense of those who would conceal facts relevant to their insurability. Information furnished by the MIB serves as an alert to the possible need for further investigation, but except in limited circumstances under MIB rules, cannot itself be used as the basis for rating or declination. The MIB is not a repository of medical reports from doctors or hospitals, and information in the MIB files does not indicate whether applications for insurance are accepted, rated, or declined.

Access To This Information

The information about you, which we obtain and keep in our files, will not be disclosed to others without your authorization except as permitted or required by law. For example, certain items of information may be disclosed to persons or organizations that perform a business, professional or insurance function for us.

We may occasionally disclose certain information to a state insurance department, or when required, to law enforcement or other governmental authority to prevent or prosecute fraud or other unlawful activities. We may also disclose information to actuarial or research groups that gather information for statistical purposes, to group policyholders when reporting claims experience or conducting audits or to a representative of an insurance or reinsurance company considering acquiring a block of business.

Information about you may be given to other insurers, reinsurers, agents, or insurance support organizations to enable them to perform a business function concerning an insurance transaction with you, or to help detect or prevent insurance fraud or misrepresentation. For your benefit, we may disclose to your physician a medical problem that you may not be aware of. Further, if you request medical information, we will release such information and the identity of the medical source which supplied the information only to you and/or your personal physician, as designated and authorized in writing by you. We will notify you when we disclose this information to your physician.

How To Obtain This Information

You have the right of access to information that Axcelus Financial Life Insurance Company maintains in its files about you or any minor child in connection with your application. Within 30 business days of our receipt of your written request, you may have access to recorded information about you that is reasonably retrievable. However, medical information will be released only to you or a physician whom you designate. Your right of access does not extend to information that relates to and is collected in connection with, or in reasonable anticipation of, a claim or civil or criminal proceeding. If requested, we will inform you of the nature and substance of the information and identify any institutional source that gave us the information. If recorded and requested, we will advise you of those persons to whom the information has been disclosed within two years prior to the request or, if not recorded, we will give you the names of the persons or organizations to whom such information is normally disclosed.

If you wish, we can arrange for you to see this information or obtain a copy by mail. You have the right to request that we amend, correct or delete any information in our files pertaining to you that you believe is incorrect or incomplete, and we will respond within 30 business days. We will tell you if we complied with your request. If we do not agree with you, we will notify you of our refusal, give you our reasons and give you the opportunity to file a concise statement of dispute with us. Your statement will remain in your file and will be sent with any disclosure of the information that we make. In either event, we will notify any insurance support organizations that furnished the information to us and any person whom you designate and who may have received such information within the preceding two years of the dispute regarding the information. Your statement of dispute will be sent to these parties if we did not comply with your request.

Safeguarding Your Privacy

We have procedures in place that limit access to personal information about you to those employees, representatives and service providers who need to know such information in order to assist in issuing, servicing and administering products and services on your behalf. We educate our employees on the importance of protecting the privacy and security of confidential customer information. Any employee who violates our privacy policy is subject to disciplinary action. We also maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal and state regulations to guard your personal information. A more detailed summary of our privacy procedures is available upon request. We will update our policy and procedures where necessary to ensure that your privacy is maintained and that we conduct our business in a way that fulfills our commitment to you. If we make any changes in our policy, we will provide our customers with an updated notice.

Please direct all requests involving the above procedures to the Legal Department of Axcelus Financial Life Insurance Company, One Liberty Place, 1650 Market Street, 8th Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19103. Give your full name, address, date of birth and policy number. You may also call us at (866) 873-1641.